—JOKERWEEK—

A 'SIMPLE' RECIPE

- Full Week (befor the Easter break)
- All regular classes are suspended. Mandatory but not for credit
- Students from all 5 years work together (450 students – 50 staff)
- Free space
  ('School' is derived from the Greek scholè, which means 'free time')

EXERCISES IN URBAN CITIZENSHIP

- Transdisciplinarity - Multiperspectivism
- The neighborhood as the most tangible version of the outside world
- Articulating place based solidarity
- Students adopting different roles
- Student-Led Education? (Masterstudents leading the tracks – Bachelors join in)

FREE SPACE – ROOM FOR EXPERIMENT

- No Credit – courses suspended
- Multiple levels of engagement for staff and students
- Working around real experiments – very motivating!
- Long lines within the curriculum + an exceptional event outside of the curriculum
- Institutional setting is risk averse!
